Consignment Agreement

Aim: The Bennington Bookshop (the Bookshop) supports authors through its consignment program. The aim of the consignment program is to feature a wide range of books published independently or through non-traditional channels and offer these books for sale to a wider audience.

Authors: Please read the information below carefully, then complete the form, sign it, and return it to us with your books.

Date: _____ Consigner name: _____

Title: _____

Author: _____ ISBN: _____

Retail price: $ _____

(The Bennington Bookshop agrees to pay the consigner 60% of the indicated retail price for each book sold.)

The Bennington Bookshop agrees to take _____ copies (no more than 5) to display on the sales floor for 6 months. Only books with a spine displaying the title and the author's name will be accepted. Spiral-bound books are not acceptable.

The consignment period for the above mentioned book ends: _____

(The consignment period may be renewed by mutual consent of both the consigner and the Bookshop.)

The Bookshop may ask for additional books to sell, as well as to renew the agreement, at any time.

At the end of the consignment period, the Bookshop will reconcile the items on consignment and send any payment resulting from the sale of books to the address provided below by the consigner. The Bookshop will notify the consigner to pick up any remaining books. The consigner may pick the books up in person, or make shipping arrangements and pay any shipping fees. The Bookshop will only pay for books that were sold. The consigner assumes sole responsibility for damaged or stolen items. Any books not picked up after 30 days from the end of the agreement will be donated or given away.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to the terms of the Bookshop consignment agreement.
